Municipal Ordinance No. 3.16.055 - Tax exemption—Motor vehicles equipped for persons who are handicapped.

Pursuant to Connecticut General Statutes Section 12-81c, an exemption from personal property taxation for any motor vehicles that has been specially equipped or modified for the exclusive purpose of transporting handicapped or medically incapacitated persons except when such vehicles is used for payment. For purposes of this section, vehicles owned by private nursing homes or similar health organizations are not exempt on the grounds that said organization are paid for such services.

A vehicle is deemed to have been specially equipped or modified for transporting handicapped or medically incapacitated persons if the vehicle is registered in the name of a person with a state of Connecticut handicapped parking permit and alterations to the vehicle include one or more of the following: special hand controls, lifts, ramps, special seating or stretchers, significant modifications to accommodate medical equipment such as oxygen or mechanical respirators or other similar significant alterations.

Persons desiring such exemption shall make application to the city tax assessor for determination whether an exemption is permitted.

(Ord. dated 5/7/07)

Connecticut General Statutes Title 12. Taxation § 12-81c. Municipal option to exempt certain motor vehicles

The legislative body of any municipality may, by ordinance, exempt from personal property taxation (1) any ambulance-type motor vehicle which is used exclusively for the purpose of transporting any medically incapacitated individual, except any such vehicle used to transport any such individual for profit, (2) any property owned by a nonprofit ambulance company, and (3) any motor vehicle owned by a person with disabilities, or owned by the parent or guardian of such person, which vehicle is equipped for purposes of adapting its use to the disability of such person, provided the legislative body of the municipality adopts a definition of such vehicle.
